

THE DOMINICAN FORUM

hosted by
CCLA
GOOD INVESTMENT

Lunchtime discussions on living the Christian faith

- Meeting in the City of London
- Lunch provided by our hosts
- Led by Dominican friars
- Designed for busy professionals – All welcome!

SEASON TWO – LENT 2017

From City Lawyer to Dominican Friar

TUESDAY
28
MARCH

Reflecting on his personal journey, Br Toby offers insights into how to bring the spiritual life into the workplace. With Br Toby Lees OP.

God So Loved The World

MONDAY
10
APRIL

Fr John will show how the Cross is a picture not of an angry God but of Divine Love. With Fr John Farrell OP.

A Closed Book?

THURSDAY
11
MAY

Fr Richard will open our eyes to the surprising relevance of the Bible to all our lives. With Fr Richard Ounsworth OP.

Venue: CCLA, 85 Queen Victoria St, London EC4V 4ET (Nearest Tube: Mansion House, St Paul's)
Sessions start promptly at 12.30pm. Places limited: email forum@english.op.org to book.
A 20-minute talk with lunch will be followed by a 20-minute discussion (leave early if you need to).

The Dominican Friars (Order of Preachers) are a Catholic religious order specialising in the intellectual apostolates. Blackfriars in London is named after the great Dominican priory which once stood there.

english.op.org/forum

Book a place: forum@english.op.org